Re: United States v. Charlie Javice and Olivier Amar,
23 Cr. 251 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

We write on behalf of Olivier Amar, whose sentencing hearing in the above-referenced matter is scheduled for July 23, 2025. Mr. Amar respectfully requests that the hearing be adjourned until August 26, 2025, at 11:00 AM, the same time as his co-defendant Charlie Javice. The Government does not oppose this request.¹

Mr. Amar requests this short adjournment due to personal circumstances. Mr. Amar's 20-year-old son, Roey, currently serves in the Israeli Defense Forces. Roey had arranged his once-annual leave so that he could be in the United States for Mr. Amar's July 23 sentencing. Roey's leave had to be temporarily postponed, however, due to the escalating conflict. Mr. Amar's hope is that his son will be able to attend his sentencing in August.

Respectfully yours,

/s/ Alexandria E. Swette
